I cannot speak highly enough about Kevin and his team at 123JUNK! They are a pleasure to work with and have consistently gone the extra mile for both myself and my clients. I have repeatedly used them and have gotten nothing but glowing returns from all of my clients (and there have been some places that defied imagination as to the amount of work that needed to be done)! Routinely they have exceeded any and all expectations and their ability to adjust on the fly to any situation and meet the demands (not all of which would be deemed realistic) of EVERY customer set them apart as far and away the best in the field. I will enthusiastically continue to use them in every possible scenario, and cannot give them a stronger endorsement of their work and treatment of any and all people with whom I've put them in contact!

I would highly recommend using the services of 123JUNK. They provide a back breaking service with ease and efficiency. His price quoted was more than fair. He also had an excellent staff that was hard working, pleasant to be around and made sure that the job was done right.

I highly recommend 123JUNK as a great resource for people who need to dispose of unwanted items in their home. As a listing agent in Northern VA, I know how important it is to have your home 100% show ready at the time of listing. I always recommend that sellers dispose of any extra items that will not present the home in its best light. 123JUNK is responsive, friendly and reasonably priced. They take all the hassle out of junk removal.

When we first starting working with Collin when he was working in the moving industry and we were highly pleased by our clients' confidence and appreciation for his consideration, care, quality service. When he started his own junk removal business removing unwanted items, our clients - and us - were "wowed" by his integrity, reliability, and top professional attitude. Whatever he does, he gives it his best, and it's always far above what's expected!

I want to express my gratitude for the quality of customer service that always starts with Kevin Wheeler and the staff at 123JUNK who assist my clients with the process of getting ready to move. Having an account manager that's as professional as Kevin really makes my job a lot less stressful. Your staff has treated all my clients with dignity and respect and for that I am eternally grateful. Thank you for providing a superior level of customer service for me and my clients.

Collin Wheeler and 123JUNK rock. Their willingness to work tirelessly and do what it takes to consistently deliver top-notch customer service is a refreshing return to the age of old values of hard work, fair pricing and courteous, on-time service. No question- Collin Wheeler and 123JUNK are my "junkmen" for life. They should be yours too!

I hired 123JUNK to remove almost everything out of a house that I am listing for a client. My seller lives in Arizona, and they were still able to work well and coordinate with both him and myself. I didn't think it was possible to get it all done in one day, but they removed nearly everything out of a 2800 square foot home in a matter of hours! I was amazed... And they were all very friendly, helpful, and professional. I was also very impressed with how well they communicated with both me and my client as far as when they would be arriving, how to handle payment, and when they would be done. I can't recommend them enough! I'll be using 123JUNK for all of my junk/furniture removal jobs in the future!

My team and I have worked with 123JUNK for many years. Their service has been invaluable to these clients. The ease with which they eliminate years of accumulation from a home is striking. More importantly, they are courteous and kind. Moving is a difficult process for people, and the employees of 123JUNK facilitate the move with compassion. We rely on their assistance, and they consistently exceed our expectations.

I highly recommend anyone to use 123JUNK. I have had numerous occasions to refer my clients to them and they have always done a great job. They are professional, reliable and competitive. Whenever I refer a contractor to one of my clients I'm very aware of the fact that my reputation is attached to it. When a contractor disappoints my client once they are off my list, I'm happy to say that has never happened with 123JUNK.

Marianne W - Springfield

Your team was phenomenal. They called prior to their arrival to let me know they were on their way. They were courteous and professional and they both introduced themselves when they arrived. After we did a walk-through and identified the items that were being removed, they completed the job in about ten minutes. The whole process was quick and easy. I will definitely use you again and I will recommend your company to others!

From the first call to the appointment scheduler to the two young men who picked up the trash, it could not have been a more pleasant experience. They were polite, answered my questions, and obviously knew what they were doing. What a great group of guys!
